Potomac Financial Group Named in Aspioneer Magazine's Featured Asset and Wealth Management Companies Edition

CALVERTON, MARYLAND, September 29, 2021 – Potomac Financial Group (PFG), a leading Maryland-based financial services company, announced today Managing Partner, Todd Wike and the practice have been featured in Aspioneer Magazine's Leading Asset and Wealth Management Companies edition. The magazine's mission is to provide the most up-to-date articles covering a vast number of sectors including the economy, environment and business. The publication frequently showcases business leaders in a variety of industries who have demonstrated exceptional business growth with a reputation for integrity and client-centric culture. The acknowledgement was featured in Aspioneer's September edition, in which Wike is interviewed.

"This acknowledgement is another testament to the PFG team and our commitment to a culture of client-centric care." said Todd Wike, Managing Partner at Potomac Financial Group, Financial Advisor and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional at Raymond James Financial Services. "While being interviewed for the magazine, I was really able to reflect on the past year and am once again grateful to our clients for the trust they placed in us during the ups and downs of the markets and the ongoing pandemic. I'm proud of how our team reacted to an abrupt change in business model and continued to deliver seamless service throughout the year. We've collectively built a culture over the years that differentiates us from many other financial planning companies."
